

THE DAWN CURRICULUM

At Sacred Heart we think about thinking. We understand that our brain grows by making connections with what we know. We know that making mistakes is a great chance to show us the incorrect connections that we have made: they are a chance to learn. When we choose to learn in a way that builds our connections, we know that this improves our Learning Powers. At Sacred Heart, we practice this 'metacognition' throughout each school day.